++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Windy and cloudy with rain arriving later.

Today:
Largely cloudy and mild, though turning windy and gusty through the day. Patchy rain spreading southwards later in the afternoon, however southern counties may stay dry until after dark. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
Rain clearing to the south during the evening. Clear intervals follow behind, but remaining breezy through the night, helping it to feel cooler than Friday night. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Sunday:
A dry day with sunny spells and generally feeling fresher than Saturday. Remaining breezy through the day, but winds finally easing into the evening. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Increasingly cloudy on Monday after a bright start. Turning milder on Tuesday with the risk of some rain, this tending to clear south early on Wednesday with brighter conditions following.
